ORDER RELATING AND REASSIGNING CASES

On January 4, 2019, the Chicken Ranch Rancheria of Me-Wuk Indians, Blue Lake Rancheria, Chemehuevi Indian Tribe, Hopland Band of Pomo Indians, and Robinson Rancheria (“2019 Tribes”) filed suit against the State of California and Governor Edmund Brown, Jr. (“California”), E.D. Cal. Case No. 1:19-cv-0024. The 2019 Tribes assert that California violated the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act by failing to engage in good faith negotiations with the 2019 Tribes concerning renewal/extensions of class III gaming compacts.

The 2019 Tribes were part of a larger group of federally recognized California Indian Tribes (whose gaming compacts expire on December 31, 2020 with automatic extension to June 30, 2022 unless a further compact is agreed to) called the Compact Tribes Steering Committee (“CTSC”) formed in 2014. The CTSC sought to negotiate with California as a group to renew/extend their gaming compacts. The negotiations did not result in a successful agreement. The 2019 Tribes withdrew from the negotiations in January 2019 and filed suit.

1 The CTSC continued to negotiate with California until July 2020. Other members of the 2 CTSC have now also filed suit against California. Several of these later suits have already been
3 related to the earlier filed suit by the 2019 Tribes, E.D. Cal. Case No. 1:19-cv-0024. The Pit River
4 Tribe filed E.D. Cal. Case No. 2:20-cv-1918. The Bear River Band of Rohnerville Rancheria filed
5 N.D. Cal. Case No. 3:20-cv-5574, which was transferred to the Eastern District, E.D. Case No.
6 1:20-cv-1539.

7 In these two suits, the plaintiffs also allege that California violated the federal Indian
8 Gaming Regulatory Act by failing to engage in good faith negotiations. There is significant 9 overlap in the subject matter of all the suits as the plaintiffs in all of these suits were members of 10 the CTSC which negotiated as a group with California for several years. The plaintiffs have filed 11 notices of related cases.

12 Local Rules state that “If the Judge to whom the action with the lower or lowest number
13 has been assigned determines that assignment of the actions to a single Judge is likely to effect a
14 savings of judicial effort or other economies, that Judge is authorized to enter an order reassigning 15 all higher numbered related actions to himself or herself.” Local Rule 123(c). To guide this 16 determination, the Local Rules also provide that:

17 An action is related to another action within the meaning of this Rule when

18 (1) both actions involve the same parties and are based on the same or a similar 19 claim;

20 (2) both actions involve the same property, transaction, or event;

21 (3) both actions involve similar questions of fact and the same question of law and 22 their assignment to the same Judge or Magistrate Judge is likely to effect a substantial savings of judicial effort, either because the same result should follow in both actions or otherwise; or

23 (4) for any other reasons, it would entail substantial duplication of labor if the 24 actions were heard by different Judges or Magistrate Judges.

25 Local Rule 123(a). Here, the cases appear to, in part, involve the same transaction or event and 26 involve similar questions of fact and law; assignment to the same judge is likely to effect a 27 substantial savings of judicial effort. Local Rule 123(a)(2), (3), and (4). Because the undersigned 28 is assigned the lowest numbered related case, the above-entitled cases will be reassigned to the dockets of Senior District Judge Anthony Ishii and referred to Magistrate Judge Sheila K. Oberto.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
